

Opening Song

OPEN THE EYES OF MY HEART (Baloche)

Open the eyes of my heart,
Open the eyes of my heart
I want to see You, I want to see You

To see You high and lifted up, shining in the light of Your glory Pour out Your power and love, as we sing Holy, Holy, Holy.....

Holy, Holy, Holy
Holy, Holy, Holy
Holy, Holy, Holy, I want to see You...

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer,
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

The Word of the Lord.....Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD—for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading

Eph 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

The Word of the Lord.....Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Cf. Eph 1: 17-18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord....Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

THE SUMMONS (ROBERT KOCHIS)

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown?
Will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

4. Will you love the "you" you hide
if I but call your name?

Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?

Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

5. Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.

Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.

In Your company I'll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Songs

BEHOLD THE LAMB (MARTIN WILLET)

1. Those who were in the dark are thankful for the sunlight,
We who live, we who die, are grateful for His gift,
Thankful for His Love...

CHORUS

Behold, behold the Lamb of God,
All who eat, all who drink shall live,
And all, all who dwell in God,
Shall come to know His glory.

2. Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding.
Of the wheat, of the wine, united with His Word.
And the Love we share...

3. Gentle one, Child of God, join with us at this table,
Bless our lives, nourish all who hunger for this feast;
Shelter them with peace...

4. Lord of all, give us light, deliver us from evil,
Make us one, be our shield, make still the winds that blow;
Cradle us with Love...

TAKE MY LIFE (AND LET IT BE) TOMLIN

Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice and let me sing always, only for my King.
Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from Thee.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Take my silver and my gold not a mite would I withhold.

Take my intellect and use every power as You choose.

Take my will and make it Thine it shall be no longer mine.

Take my heart it is Thine own it shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love, my Lord I pour at Your feet its treasure store

Take myself and I will be ever, only, all for Thee.

Take my life and I will be consecrated unto thee.

Recessional Song

MIGHTY TO SAVE (HILLSONGS)

CHORUS:

Savior He can move the mountains

My God is mighty to save, He is mighty to save

Forever Author of salvation

He rose and conquered the grave, Jesus conquered the grave

1. Everyone needs compassion, Love that's never failing

Let mercy fall on me

Everyone needs forgiveness, the kindness of a Savior

The hope of nations (to chorus)

2. So take me as You find me, all my fears and failures

Fill my life again

I give my life to follow, everything I believe in Now I surrender (to chorus)

News from our Pastor

We're about halfway through our "Live It Well" homily series; as usual, last week's installment is in the bulletin this week. This summer I hope to spend some time thinking and praying about what topics for preaching might help our guests and parishioners in the year ahead. So, if you have ideas for a topic that you think would make a great series, or a topic that would help you make progress in faith, or a topic that really helped you love and trust Jesus more, I'd love to hear about it. Also, it's always great to have your ideas on how I can improve my preaching. Most of all, please pray for me, that I say what Jesus and Mary want me to say, the way they want me to say it! God bless you!

-Fr. Aaron Nord

Fr. Nord's Homily-July 4, 2021

Happy Fourth of July, everyone! I'd like to dive right into the Gospel we just heard, because I think it has a connection to this Fourth of July Independence Day, and also to "Live It Well", our current homily series on life and summer.

In today's Gospel Jesus goes back to his hometown and had a bad day. It's a bit of a disaster. The people he grew up with reject him and his message. In Luke's Gospel, Luke mentions that Jesus' old neighbors got so angry they tried to throw him out of town, literally. What a bad day. No one had faith; it seemed like nothing good was happening; Jesus worked no mighty deeds "apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them."

Whoa, whoa, whoa—let's rewind for a moment—what was that last part? "He was not able to do any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them." On this "bad day" where nothing went well, JESUS WORKED MIRACLES and cured people who were sick. How's that for a perspective adjuster? Yes, it had been a bad day. The Gospel says that Jesus was amazed by their lack of faith. But even on this "bad day" Jesus was still the Father's Son, with blessing from the Father that really blessed others.

So there's the connection between Jesus in his hometown and us on the Fourth of July, 2021. It's a perspective adjuster. While I haven't talked to many people recently who enthusiastically tell me the United States of America is really doing great; while people from many different perspectives have told me about a way we're headed in the wrong direction and some "bad days" our nation has had recently, still, if we pause and think on this fourth of July, about our nation and our independence, we have some blessings.

We have freedom to discuss and to listen. We have freedom to meet and to vote. We have freedom to shape the direction of our nation. And we have other blessings, too, prosperity in various ways. We have many blessings from God. Well, on Jesus' bad day, he still was and he still lived as the Son of his Heavenly Father, and the blessings he had, he made them count for others. Then, though our past and present problems humble us, as citizens we still have a choice before us. Will we hunker down and use our freedoms, our prosperity, and our blessings just to make things as good as we can for ourselves for as long as we can? Or will we live as citizens of heaven, as daughters and sons of God the Father, as Jesus did, and make our blessings count for others?

Indeed, if you'll think even a little deeper yet with me, I think we can see the lesson of Jesus' humbling day in his home town is a lesson not only for Fourth of July 2021, but for many times in life, vacation, or summer. We can call that lesson "the value of humility". Humility is the virtue, the strength on the inside, that keeps us in touch with the truth about ourselves, good and bad, and leads us to serve others because the truth about them is that they are important to God. Humility makes us admit our flaws and weaknesses. Humility reminds us that we have "bad days", moments that are hard and disappointing. Yet if we remember Jesus and the people he helped in his hometown of Nazareth, humility makes us not only honest, but also hopeful. For the same humility that points out to us our many problems points out to us also that God the Creator has become the Lord our Savior, that he really does love us, and that he has given us many blessings. So because the Lord says, "my power is made perfect in weakness", we can say, "When I am weak, then I am strong".

Whether we're talking about life or summer or vacation or this Fourth of July, as individuals and as a nation, the way to live it well, I suggest, is to live as Jesus did, as daughters and sons of God, with patience for our neighbors and compassion for our afflicted, blessing them with our blessings. What if you started thinking about which of your blessings you could share with someone else when they are having a bad day? Maybe you could make a list of toys you have you could share with someone else to cheer them up. What if you took time to ask someone relevant questions about a topic that interested them, and really listened to the answers? What if you set aside a dime or a dollar for people in a poor country every time you heard someone pontificate on politics in our country? Well, all these are just suggestions to get you thinking, and maybe they are too complicated. Because what I want to invite you to do this week is to express your trust in Jesus in a simple way. This week, when you hit your hard moment or your bad day, look for a blessing you have that can bless others.

Saint of the Week

Saint Francis Solano

Saint of the Day for July 17

Saint Francis Solano's Story

Francis came from a leading family in Andalusia, Spain. Perhaps it was his popularity as a student that enabled Francis in his teens to stop two duellists. He entered the Friars Minor in 1570, and after ordination enthusiastically sacrificed himself for others. His care for the sick during an epidemic drew so much admiration that he became embarrassed and asked to be sent to the African missions. Instead he was sent to South America in 1589.

While working in what is now Argentina, Bolivia, and Paraguay, Francis quickly learned the local languages and was well received by the indigenous peoples. His visits to the sick often included playing a song on his violin.

Around 1601, he was called to Lima, Peru, where he tried to recall the Spanish colonists to their baptismal integrity. Francis also worked to defend the indigenous peoples from oppression. He died in Lima in 1610 and was canonized in 1726. His liturgical feast is celebrated on July 14.

Reflection

Francis Solano knew from experience that the lives of Christians sometimes greatly hinder the spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Francis lived an exemplary life himself, and urged his fellow Spaniards to make their lives worthy of their baptisms.

Thank you! Thank you! To everyone who donated to the Diaconate Diaper collection during the shortened drop off time due to Covid. I know this "Thank you" is way overdue, due to this Covid year, so, again Thank you! This year you donated 2533 baby diapers and adult undergarments. The baby diapers have been donated to our pro-life committee and were distributed to Our Lady's Inn and Birthright. The adult undergarments have all been put in the supply room with the medical equipment and are there for anyone in need of these. Call either Debbie or myself with any questions. A special thanks to Ray and Brenda Bucher for delivering the baby diapers to Our Lady's Inn and Birthright.

Thank you again,
Deacon Jim
