

Opening Song

SOMETIMES BY STEP (MULLINS)

Oh God, You are my God,
And I will ever praise You
Oh God, You are my God,
And I will ever praise You
And I will seek You in the morning
And I will learn to walk in Your ways
And step by step You'll lead me
And I will follow You all of my days.....

And I will follow You all of my days
And I will follow You all of my da---ys
And step by step You'll lead me,
and I will follow You all of my days.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer,
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Is 61:9-11

Thus says the LORD: The descendants of my people shall be renowned among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; All who see them shall acknowledge them as a race the LORD has blessed.

I rejoice heartily in the LORD, in my God is the joy of my soul; For he has clothed me with a robe of salvation, and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, Like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem, like a bride bedecked with her jewels. As the earth brings forth its plants, and a garden makes its growth spring up, So will the Lord GOD make justice and praise spring up before all the nations..

The Word of the Lord.....Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Sm 2:1, 4-5, 6-7, 8abcd

R. My heart exults in the Lord, my Savior.

"My heart exults in the LORD,
my horn is exalted in my God.
I have swallowed up my enemies;
I rejoice in my victory."

R. My heart exults in the Lord, my Savior.

"The bows of the mighty are broken,
while the tottering gird on strength.
The well-fed hire themselves out for bread,
while the hungry batten on spoil.
The barren wife bears seven sons,
while the mother of many languishes."

R. My heart exults in the Lord, my Savior.

"The LORD puts to death and gives life;
he casts down to the nether world;
he raises up again.
The LORD makes poor and makes rich,
he humbles, and also exalts."

R. My heart exults in the Lord, my Savior.

"He raises the needy from the dust;
from the dung heap he lifts up the poor,
To seat them with nobles
and make a glorious throne their heritage."

R. My heart exults in the Lord, my Savior.

Second Reading

Rom 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for the good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

The Word of the Lord.....Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

LK 2:19

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is the Virgin Mary who kept the word of God and pondered it in her heart.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Lk 2:41-51

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart.

The Gospel of the Lord....Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

10000 REASONS (MATT REDMAN)

CHORUS

Bless the Lord oh my soul, Oh my soul
Worship His Holy name
Sing like never before, Oh my soul
I'll worship Your Holy name

1. The sun comes up, It's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me
Let me be singing when the evening comes
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger
Your name is great and Your heart is kind
For all Your goodness I will keep on singing
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find

Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Songs

SEED SCATTERED AND SOWN (FEITEN)

Seed, scattered and sown, wheat, gathered and grown,
bread, broken and shared as one,
the Living bread of God.
Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands, one cup that is shared by all; the Living Cup,
the Living Bread of God.

1. Is not the bread we break,
A sharing in our Lord?
Is not the cup we bless,
the blood of Christ outpoured?

2. The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die,
The seed within good ground will flower and have life.

3. As wheat upon the hills was gathered and was grown, so may the Church of God
be gathered into one

HUNGRY (SCOTT)

1. Hungry, I come to You
For I know You satisfy
I am empty but I know
Your love does not run dry
So I wait for You
So I wait for You

CHORUS

I'm falling on my knees
Offering all of me
Jesus, You're all this heart is living for

2. Broken, I run to You
For Your arms are open wide
I am weary but I know
Your love does not run dry

So I wait for You
So I wait for You

O blessed St. Joseph, pray for us that we may share in the peace and joy of your holy death. Amen.

1. Great is Your faithfulness oh God of Jacob...
You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart
You lead me by still waters into mercy
And nothing can keep us apart

for Your grace is enough
yeah Your grace is enough
yeah Your grace is enough

You lead us in the song of Your salvation
And all Your people sing along

Immaculate Heart of Mary Feast Day

I've been looking forward to our Feast Day of the Immaculate Heart of Mary with much excitement! Being able to consecrate our homes to the Blessed Mother and the Sacred Heart of Jesus has arrived at the most opportune time!

I don't know about you, but there have been some tough patches in my life. Have you experienced loneliness, unemployment, loss, confusion? For me, this past couple of years have contained illness, death, sadness, fear, questions and worry. My dear friend of over twenty years, our parish secretary Ann was diagnosed and died from cancer, our dear pastor at that time; Msgr. Billing, struggled with his health and was hospitalized twice due to a heart condition, I had a brain aneurysm, and then the pandemic hit which took us to a new level of uncertainty. Our country and the world have experience violence and unrest, there have been numerous funerals of wonderful parishioners and two more friends have been diagnosed with cancer. Amidst it all I have found hope, perseverance, guidance and the desire to strengthen and renew my faith and trust in the Lord.

I know when Jesus is at the front of our hearts and homes, we give Him the opportunity to bring His love and mercy to our lives and to those closest to us. Lord, I need you.

Consecrating our homes to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus, reminds us of the very close connection they have with each other. We are asking for Jesus' help under the love and guidance of His Mother. We are making a conscious, willing decision to dedicate our prayers, mind, actions, heart and body to God.

"Lord, I want to consecrate my home. Now more than ever we need to have Your guidance and grace to live and grow our faith, in our parish and our homes. May we allow the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary to use these uncertain times as opportunities for growth, while strengthening our love and service for Them and for others. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us! Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us! Amen."

Debbie Gartner, Pastoral Associate

I thought you should know – June 13, 2021

Happy feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary! May you feel the love and motherly care of Mary the Mother of Jesus and our Mother, too, who loves us so. If you are a guest or if you are here for the first time, we are so glad that you are joining us on this joyful day when we remember the woman in heaven, beautiful inside and out, from whom our parish takes its name.

What a blessing it has been to be a priest here at Immaculate Heart of Mary for the past ten months! Our parish has a wonderful history and so many good people have given us the gifts that make this community what it is. By God's grace, we also can have a wonderful future, if we listen to Jesus and do what he cares about, growing as his disciples and helping people come to faith in him, receive his hope, and live by his love. "By this is my Father glorified," Jesus says, "that you bear much fruit and become my disciples" (John 15:8).

At Mass today, I hope you chose to join us in dedicating your life to Jesus by consecrating your family to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. If you made that big step, congratulations! I encourage you to keep moving forward in your consecration by renewing it daily, by taking CARE of it—see my homily from last week below J—and enthroning an image of Jesus and Mary in your home. Use the last page of the bulletin to sign up for a home enthronement! You can turn that form into the rectory office or just drop it in the collection basket.

The holy card we gave out today is yours to keep. Since today's a joyful day, we have treats available in the back after Mass; please join in the free fun. Meet and be friendly with someone you don't already know, ok? God bless you!

What a gift to see Fr. Jack Ruzicka, who grew up in our church, ordained a priest last Saturday and to celebrate with him his first mass here last Sunday. He reminded me how blessed I am to be a priest. One of the blessings is visiting people who are very sick. What a privilege to help people, sometimes when even the best doctors can't. It's also a privilege because I get to meet the friends and relatives caring for them. Their love is inspiring! They give humble, hidden, and hard work because they care. What most people they know—coworkers, neighbors—don't get to see, I get to see, and how much the sick person appreciates their love, and how dear their care is to God. Their love and dedication shines by the way they care.

Today we celebrate Jesus' care for us, a unique sign of his care for us. This unique sign is not just beautiful words in a story, or a consoling idea, but an event that happened in history and a miracle that continues today. For today is the great feast of Corpus Christi, Latin words meaning "the Body of Christ". Today we remember that Jesus gave us his Body and Blood, really, truly, under the signs of bread and wine. At each Catholic Eucharist, at each Mass, after the prayer of consecration prayer the bread really becomes the Body of Christ, Jesus himself, though hidden from sight. After the consecration prayer, the wine really becomes the Blood of Christ, Jesus himself, though unchanged in taste. The Eucharist began at the Last Supper the night before Jesus died, and each time the Eucharist occurs again, Jesus says to you and me, "This is my body; this is my blood; I am giving you my heart; may I please have yours?"

Respecting our freedom, Jesus lets us choose how we respond. One beautiful way to say, "Jesus, also my heart is yours", is consecrating your family to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It's a powerful way to dedicate your life to God. Next week, here at Mass, you will have a chance to choose it.

In past weeks, we've been learning how important it is that we live out our consecration after we make it, if we make it. When we live it, that's when the power of the Holy Spirit comes through our lives to help others; when we live it, that is when the love of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit starts shining from our homes. And last week, we introduced four humble ways to keep our consecration shining and strong, four ways to care for our consecration by prayer. CARE: C-Confession, A-Adoration, R-Rosary, and E-Eucharist. Let's take a quick glance at how each shows Jesus that we care.

C stands for Confession. What are the three most powerful words for taking care of your love and making it last? Maybe not, "I love you", but instead, "Please forgive me" or "I forgive you." Each good confession we make to a priest says to Jesus specifically, sincerely, the way he asked us to say it, "Please forgive me". And in each good confession, Jesus speaks to us through the priest, saying, "I forgive you." What's more, if we have the misfortune to commit serious sin—I mean, if we do on purpose something we knew was wrong, and it was something serious—we need to go to confession as soon as possible and before we receive communion. For no matter how great our sin, a good confession opens the gates of heaven to us, restores the life of God to our souls, and renews our consecration to the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts. Incidentally, I'll be hearing confessions for thirty minutes before and after all masses this weekend [of June 5 and June 6]; if those times work for you, you find me right over there.

A stands for Adoration. Adoration means visiting the Body of Christ, Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist, in a church or chapel. In adoration, Jesus welcomes us as a loving friend, sitting with us and passing time with us, always ready to give us rest or hear our concerns or talk with us about our joys. We get to be with the Heart of the Kingdom of God, and meet with the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, who became our brother and friend.

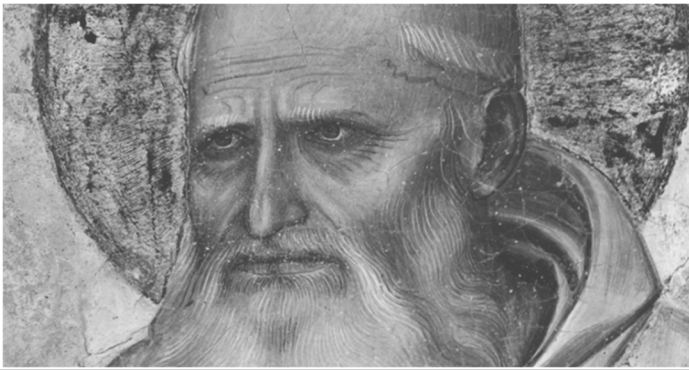

R stands for Rosary. [Show rosary beads.] Maybe you've seen these hanging from a rearview mirror in a Catholic's car, or held in the hands of the deceased at a Catholic wake. Rosary beads are a tool to guide us through a pattern of prayer. When we pray the rosary, we spend time with Mary thinking about Jesus' love. While we think with her, we use the rosary beads to help us keep up a pattern of prayers, making each little prayer a gift to Jesus and Mary's hearts, and giving us something to refocus us if we get distracted. Since the Rosary is a prayer, you can say it while driving or going through your day, it's a great way to spend time with Jesus and Mary and care for your consecration.

E stands for Eucharist. The word "Eucharist" in Greek means thanksgiving. It's what we do here at Mass, and it's the greatest prayer of the Church, because in the Eucharist, we enter into Jesus' own thanksgiving sacrifice. He unites us to what he did on Calvary, offering himself with love to the Father, thanking the Father for his goodness, and looking forward to the joy of heaven with us. Muscles get stronger when you exercise, and the exercise of joining Jesus in offering love and in thanking the Father is the best way of all to exercise our spiritual heart muscles.

If you consecrate your family to Jesus and Mary at our parish feast day next week, remember that CARE, Confession, Adoration, Rosary and Eucharist, C-A-R-E is a great way to take care of your consecration by prayer and make it shine. I'm looking forward to next week, and I hope you are, too. But do you know what? Our relationship with Jesus is never centered in next week or next month or next year, in who we used to be or who we might be someday. Rather, right now, he loves you, and right now he welcomes you, and right now you can give him joy. For right now, in each moment, and in a special way in this Eucharist, he says to you, "Here is my heart; may I please have yours?" So, I invite you, whatever you might choose next week, to say to Jesus today, "My heart also is yours."

Saint of the Week

Saint Romuald
Saint of the Day for June 19

Saint Romuald's Story

In the midst of a wasted youth, Romuald watched his father kill a relative in a duel over property. In horror he fled to a monastery near Ravenna. After three years, some of the monks found him to be uncomfortably holy and eased him out.

Romuald spent the next 30 years going about Italy, founding monasteries and hermitages. He longed to give his life to Christ in martyrdom, and got the pope's permission to preach the gospel in Hungary. But he was struck with illness as soon as he arrived, and the illness recurred as often as he tried to proceed.

During another period of his life, Romuald suffered great spiritual dryness. One day as he was praying Psalm 31 ("I will give you understanding and I will instruct you"), he was given an extraordinary light and spirit which never left him.

At the next monastery where he stayed, Romuald was accused of a scandalous crime by a young nobleman he had rebuked for a dissolute life. Amazingly, his fellow monks believed the accusation. He was given a severe penance, forbidden from offering Mass, and excommunicated—an unjust sentence that he endured in silence for six months.

The most famous of the monasteries Romuald founded was that of the Camaldoli in Tuscany. Here began the Order of the Camaldolese Benedictines, uniting the monastic and eremitical lives. In later life Romuald's own father became a monk, wavered, and was kept faithful by the encouragement of his son.

Reflection

Christ is a gentle leader, but he calls us to total holiness. Now and then, men and women are raised up to challenge us by the absoluteness of their dedication, the vigor of their spirit, the depth of their conversion. The fact that we cannot duplicate their lives does not change the call to us to be totally open to God in our own particular circumstances.
