CASTING OUR NETS?

In the first reading we hear how Peter and the apostles told the Sanhedrin that "We must obey God rather than men." Then in the Gospel we hear that Jesus appeared to the disciples after they had fished all night without any success. Jesus told them to "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." Despite being tired, the disciples obeyed and they caught 153 large fish! We have so many reasons that we can give for not wanting to obey God and "cast our nets" by sharing the Gospel message with others through our example and our actions. Here are just a few: we are tired; we would rather stay in our comfort zone; we are afraid because we think we don't know our faith well enough; or we would rather do what we want. This week we can spend some time pondering these questions: Do I obey God when I hear Him speaking to me in my heart? Do I cast my nets through my example and actions? Do I cave into the pressures of our current culture or to my own desires?

Dear Parishioners,

This month dedicated to our Blessed Mother in the tradition of the Church reminds us of the important role she has played and continues to play in God's plan of salvation. Like any other vocation of a parent, hers does not end but continues to this day. Having said "Let it be done to me according to Your Will" once in history, she continues to respond to her call to be the Mother of the Savior with all its effects. She is also our Mother in the order of grace, and she offers prayers on our behalf before God. May she guide us to conform our lives more to that of her Son so that His Will may be fulfilled in us!

This weekend, we hear the familiar passage of St. Peter's reconciliation with our Lord after His Resurrection. After his threefold confession of his dedication to our Lord that goes against his threefold denial at the time of His Passion, St. Peter receives the vocation to guide and feed the flock of Christ, that is His Church. Again, this vocation once offered and accepted does not end completely, as St. Peter continues to share in the guidance of the Church through his intercession. Though his earthly mission is passed on to another as chief shepherd of the flock, he continues to be an active player in God's plan for us.

This truth is unfortunately not accepted by all those who claim to be Christian...that the saints in heaven can and still play a role in our life. Once, I was told that since they are before God, they would no longer be concerned about us, for He would captivate all their concentration and energy. While it is true that those in heaven see God face-to-face, this does not mean that they are no longer concerned for us. In fact, being so united to God, their concern is magnified by His power and glory. They share His concern for us and know what is going on in our lives through Him. The communion of all those who share in the grace of God does not end once one is judged to enter eternal life, but it is confirmed and blessed in heaven. May we take advantage of this special bond, so that we may join them before God.

Finally, just a couple of notes. Thanks to all those who have volunteered to assist our ACA drive, and to Barb Vineyard for organizing it. Your generosity continues to assist a variety of ministries in the Archdiocese and beyond...from our charitable works, to the seminary, to our mission in Bolivia... Thanks!

Secondly, St. Mark's parish is looking for a full-time maintenance person. It has become increasingly difficult to find a good person for such work, and they would appreciate passing the word to anyone who would be interested.

Have a blessed Easter season!

In the Hearts of Jesus & Mary,
Father Kristian Teater

JOKE OF THE WEEK

1. Why do croutons come in airtight packages? Aren't they just stale bread to begin with?
2. Whatever happened to Preparations A thru G?
3. Why does Superman stop bullets with his chest, but ducks when you throw a revolver at him?
4. Why is it that, no matter what color bubble bath you use, the bubbles are always white?
5. Why do people run over a string a dozen times with their vacuum cleaner, then reach down, pick it up, examine it and then put it down to give the vacuum one more chance?

SENIOR MOMENTS

RENEW

You may have read in previous bulletins that Renew is held six weeks during Advent and six weeks during Lent. The morning Renew group began with Jane Siebel, about fifteen years ago. I have hosted our gatherings for about eleven years. The Renew group is something I hold close to my heart. Once a week for six weeks I gather with parishioners. We come to grow in relationship and knowledge of our Lord and of our faith. A blessing that comes with that time is the sharing of stories, thoughts and concerns. It is an opportunity to feel connected through confidential conversation and study. We have morning treats, coffee, juice and hot tea. It is a relaxed, holy time to feel present and welcomed.

We recently celebrated the completion of our Lenten Renew with a potluck gathering. There was a buzz in the air. I love the energy in the room. Many people shared that Renew is "like an oasis in their week," "a time to feel heard," "a time to learn," "feel supported," and "when I see people from Renew at Mass, I feel a connection."

We look forward to our time together. Last year it was decided to meet once a month during the off seasons. We meet the last Wednesday of the month at 10:00 a.m. in the Rectory Meeting Room. Sometimes we view a movie, sometimes we have a topic for discussion and hopefully an opportunity to learn about ourselves, each other and most important, our relationship with Jesus.

There are people who have attended for years and there are those who recently began attending. All are welcome! Come on your own or bring someone with you! We would love to have you.

Our next gathering will be Wednesday, May 29th, 10:00 a.m. in the Rectory Meeting Room. We will gather for treats and watch the 2015 movie: "War

Room." With great jobs, a beautiful daughter and a dream house, the Jordans seem to have it all. Appearances can be deceiving however, as husband Tony flirts with temptation and wife Elizabeth becomes increasingly bitter, crumbling under the strain of a failing marriage. Their lives take an unexpected turn for the better when Elizabeth meets her newest client, Miss Clara who encourages the couple to find happiness through prayer.

Hope to see you there!

THE MONTH OF MAY

As we enter in to the month of May, I will be offering prayers for and from Mothers. I discovered the prayers on the Creighton University website:

PRAYER OF A MOTHER'S CONCERNED ABOUT HER ADULT CHILDREN

As I turn to you, Lord, my heart is troubled. You know the journey that brought my children to where they are today. I am so sorry for whatever my husband or I might have done wrong, Lord. Our children don't seem to practice the faith we tried to hand on to them. Their values are so different from ours. It breaks my heart to see them passing those same values on to their children, my grandchildren.

Oh, Lord, I place them in your hands. I surrender the judgments and anger that can fill me. I know that, at times, in my frustration and desire to help them, I have pushed them farther away. Give me the graces I need to change my heart. Fill me with your mercy and forgiveness for my sins so that I might grow in the ability to forgive and embrace my kids with compassionate love. Let me be a healer of wounds, rather than a wound-er. Let me build bridges of understanding. I know that is the only way I will be able, with your grace, to heal our relationship.

Father of Love, help my kids grow in gratitude to you. Help them to find you in their busy lives. Help me to affirm them and support them with love, that they might recognize authentic faith and love, and turn to you in their time of need. Amen.

WORLD APOSTOLATE OF FATIMA NOVENA

The annual Novena will take place at Saint John Paul II Parish (the old St. George), from May 5th through May 13th. The Rosary will be recited at 7:00 p.m. with Mass at 7:30 p.m. For those who are unable to attend the Novena and would like to say the prayer from May 5-13th.

Fatima Novena Prayer

O' Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, you deigned to come to Fatima to reveal to the three shepherd children the treasures of graces hidden in the recitation of the Rosary. Inspire our hearts with a sincere love of this devotion, so that by meditating on the mysteries of our redemption that are recalled in it, we may gather its fruits, obtain peace for the world, the conversion of sinners, the conversion of Russia, and the favor which I ask of you in the Novena (state your request here). I ask it for the greater glory of God, for your own honor, and for the good of all souls, especially those most in need of thy mercy. Amen
